

KIOSK

Drink

Most Drinkable

Rose Wines

MEINKLANG PROSA ROSÉ OF PINOT NOIR

This is a funky one for sure. Here, you have Italian style Frizzante sparkling wine made with Pinot Noir grapes from Austria.

JOLIE FOLLE

It's exactly what great French rosé should be: light and airy with a crisp, snappy finish.

RED CAR

This high-quality winemaker takes on the feminine flavors of organically farmed Pinot Noir with hints of pink grapefruit and Bing cherry. And the bottle is pretty enough to gift to your favorite hostess.

RUZA, ZINFANDEL ROSÉ

A craft take on an American classic, this subtly sweet White Zinfandel is a pale-pink porch-pounder—an amazing wine for day drinking and pairing with spicy Thai and Indian foods.

AMEZTOI RUBENTIS

Prized for its tart, fresh character, this unique Basque region wine is bottled with just a hint of fizz, making it a perfect choice on a hot summer day.

SUMMER WATER

Light and refreshing, this Pinot Noir rosé was a creative collaboration between @yeswayrose and the team at Club W.

MOUTON NOIR LOVE DRUNK ROSÉ

This Pinot-based rosé is intoxicating, complex, and provocative, thus the name.

UNDERWOOD ROSÉ

With notes of strawberry, watermelon, and peach, this is a supremely drinkable beverage ideal for outdoor fêtes.

LORENZA ROSÉ

Not only is this Provencal-style rosé absolutely delicious, it's a true passion project from an amazing mother-and-daughter team. When Melinda Kearny and Michele Lorenza Ouellet aren't in the vineyards tending the vines, these lovely ladies pop up in Gap ads and walk the fashion runways.

WHISPERING ANGEL

The nose on this dry cult favorite is fresh with pure, with sweet notes of raspberry and strawberry, a slight glycerol roundness, and a serious acid backbone.

KIOSK